

Thresholds: Connecting Body and Soul after Brain Injury

A timely, firsthand account of the struggles, frustrations and thresholds to be crossed while overcoming a devastating brain injury/stroke, told by the patient himself. Pray gives insight into the challenges he faces as he slowly comes to the realization that he must let go of who he was to become who he is. With excellent insights from neuropsychologist David Gumm, it gives a voice to many who have lost their ability to speak.
